Microsoft (MSFT) has signed an agreement with Sony to ensure that all duties remain available on PlayStation 5. Microsoft and Sony have a long history of cooperation, and this deal is a testament to their commitment to providing high-quality content to gamers.

Microsoft's acquisition of Activision Blizzard is a significant move in the gaming industry. The deal, valued at approximately $69 billion, will create a new powerhouse in the gaming world. The combined company will have a strong presence in console gaming, mobile gaming, and esports.

The acquisition of Activision Blizzard also includes several key franchises, such as Call of Duty, Overwatch, and Hearthstone. These franchises are highly popular and have a large following of players. Microsoft's acquisition of these franchises is a strategic move to strengthen its position in the gaming market.

The deal is expected to close in late 2023 or early 2024. Microsoft and Sony are both excited about the partnership and the potential for future collaboration. The new company, Microsoft Activision, is expected to be a major force in the gaming industry for years to come.
