No squares are also on top. E-mail:  E-mail:  In 1974 and 1990, I won the World Cup as a player and coach, respectively. These achievements have made me famous. In addition, I am one of the seven players to win the gold, silver, and bronze World Cup FIFA. Unfortunately, I died on January 8, 2024, at the age of 78. However, my career continues to inspire future generations. My passion for football began at the age of 2, when I signed with SC Munchen in 1906. Eventually, I transferred to FC Bayern Munich in 1964. In total, I played 103 official matches for the team, scoring 53 goals. These matches include the seasons of 64/65 to 72/73, when I was the captain of FC Bayern Munich. During this period, I won 4 titles: the Bundesliga, four German Cups, the German Cup, and the UEFA Cup. In 1970, I joined the New York Cosmos, where I played during several seasons. In this club, I played 111 matches and scored 29 goals. These matches demonstrate my ability as a player, even as a defender. Nicknamed "Der Kaiser" ("the emperor"), I am known as a leader and a strategist on the field. My ability to read the game and distribute the ball accurately was fundamental
