sigla HT significa "Hyper Text", que é uma referência; tecnologia usada para criar hierarquias entre diferentes páginas da web, rasgando a página navegada.

A invenção da HT

AHT foi inventada por Tim Berners-Lee em 1989, considerando trabalho no CERN, o Laboratório Europeu de Física das Partículas. Ele quer uma maneira de facilitar a troca de informações entre os cientistas do CERN e um projeto na Web para encontrar informações concretas.

Características da HT

Interconexão: a HT permite que diferentes páginas da web estejam interconectadas, permitindo aos utilizadores navegar entre elas facilmente. Isso é quem os usuários estão usando várias plataformas de internet com facilidade.

Introdução: Double Chance 1X

A estratégia Double Chance 1X é um tipo de abordagem interessante para apostas desportivas que permite cobrir duas das três possibilidades de resultados de um evento desportivo.
